Series: The Faith That STILL Roars
Sermon: More Significant Than You Realize - Prayer
Daniel 10:1-21

1. Read Daniel 10:1-21. How often do you think about the realities of spiritual warfare? What causes you to recognize these realities?
2. What does Daniel show us about the proper response to revelation? How do you respond when you read a difficult passage? How do you respond when you read a passage you don't want to be true?
3. As far as you can glean from Daniel 10, being careful not to unnecessarily extrapolate, what is the relationship between prayer and spiritual warfare? How can you engage in spiritual battle with your prayers?
4. Read Ephesians 6:10-20. What does this passage say about spiritual warfare and prayer?
5. Daniel 10 teaches that angels and demons are engaged in combat with one another. Why do you think this is so difficult for many people to believe or understand in our day? Is it difficult for you to accept?
6. How was Daniel impacted by this message and the presence of these entities? Think through Scripture to other individuals who were impacted by such things, like John on the island of Patmos. What are their similar reactions? Why were these their reactions? Are you in such awe of God and His Word?
7. Daniel is encouraged because he is treasured by God. Reflect on God's love for you as shown in Christ in Romans 5:8. How can this encourage you as you encounter spiritual opposition?
8. There is a difference of opinion among Christian brothers on the identity of the one figure in Daniel 10:5-6. Compare the characteristics of this figure in Daniel 10:5-6 with the revealed Jesus Christ in Revelation 1:12-16. What differences and similarities are there? Is there anything told to us in Daniel 10 that suggests it may be Christ?
