Series: The Faith That STILL Roars
Sermon: The Intersection of History and Prophecy
Daniel 11:1-45

1. How are the events of Daniel 11 connected to the decree announced by the angel in Daniel 9:24, "Seventy weeks (490 years) have been decreed for your people and your holy city ... " ?
2. How would you describe "the spirit of the antichrist" (1 John 4:3)? Where do you see this spirit at work in history and today?
3. How have you previously thought about the coming of the antichrist? How does it fit with the prophecy of Daniel 11? Is the antichrist alive on earth today?
4. What are the tools Antiochus IV used to achieve his evil goals? Are these methods used by other people? How might you be tempted to use these same means in your own life? Read Luke 6:43-45 and James 1:13-15. What do these verses say about the source of our sin?
5. How does God use difficulty to work in His people in Daniel 11? How has He used difficulty to work in your own life?
6. What marks the faithful people in Daniel 11? How can you imitate their faithfulness to the Lord in your setting?
7. What are the defining characteristics of the antichrist, the man? How does the image of the antichrist contrast with the image of Jesus as presented in Revelation?
8. What comfort should God's people receive from such a horrible portrait of the antichrist? Why would this prophecy be helpful for God's people?
