Series: The Faith That STILL Roars
Sermon: The End

Daniel 11:36 – 12:13

1. What aspects of your discipleship need to be more fully shaped by understanding your future, especially as Daniel foretells it? How?
2. Why is preparation for persecution a necessary part of discipleship? What kinds of persecution might you face for the sake of Christ?
3. Why is the resurrection an important and necessary component of the gospel? Why do you think it is so often overlooked?
4. According to verse 3, what is the proper task of God's people living before "the end of days"?
5. It is a basic principle of discipleship to study and meditate on God's Word. How can you, like Daniel, work to preserve and live according to God's Word?
6. Do you ever grow impatient waiting for Christ's return? To what area of faithfulness is God calling you as you wait?
7. Do you recall how many times Pastor Robert said the Hebrew word for "stand" is used in Daniel 10-12? What is the significance of this, especially in light of "the end" in Daniel 12?
8. Remember that Daniel 10-12 is once section, divided in our modern Bibles to help us study by section. How many figures does Daniel see in Daniel 12? Compare this to Daniel 10. Why does Pastor Robert hold to the view that the man in linen is the Lord Jesus? What is your view? Defend it from Scripture.
9. Now that we've completed the book of Daniel 8-12, what do you take away from this study? What was your favorite chapter of study and why?
