Mission Update: Kopf, Jonathan & Susan
Ethnos 360 – Sanford, FL.

We received urgent news from the Hewa tribe that a severe drought in the South Pacific has caused the village gardens to stop producing food and the spring, that supplies water to both the village and school, to dry up. Since there are no stores in the remote mountains where food can be purchased, we decided to temporarily close the school and send all the teachers to their homes. Please pray that the Lord will provide enough rain that the village gardens will start producing again quickly. Thank you for your love, prayers and gifts! We are deeply grateful for your huge part in sharing the love of Jesus with the Hewa tribal people of Papua,NewGuinea. Thank you!
