Sermon: Compromising Flexitarians
Revelation 2:12-17

1. Thinking of the church in Pergamum, what are some of the external threats to the church? Internal threats? What are the external and internal threats to today's church in America? Which in your opinion are more dangerous: eternal or internal threats?

2. Why is compromise such a deceptive and dangerous temptation for the church?

3. What evidence does Revelation 2:12-17 provide that the Scriptures are true?

4. What is a "privatized" faith and why is it not an option for the genuine church?

5. Describe why "open-mindedness" and "tolerance" are tempting to a believer and the church? Why do you think immorality and idolatry are so closely connected? What can you and our church do to protect ourselves from compromising theologically?

6. Read Revelation 2:17. Describe the concept of "hidden manna." How is it better than the false supply produced and provided by the teaching of Balaam?

7. What is significant about receiving the stone with the new name on it? Why should believers find hope and strength to persevere in looking forward to receiving this stone?
